

I personally believe that the CAVEC petition will preserve the hobby of ham radio. Morse code is a thing of the past. I do not believe the FCC should have to take the time for morse code and/or spend the extra expense of the code. I also believe that 3 classes of amateur license is sufficient.